

Chief Executive Officer – Alice Springs

Community Housing Central Australia (CHCA) is an Aboriginal controlled, not-for-profit, Tier 2 registered community housing provider (CHP) based in Alice Springs, Northern Territory.

Established by the Tangentyere Council in 2009, their mission is to improve people's lives by providing safe and affordable homes, with a key focus on addressing the housing problems faced by many Aboriginal people in the Northern Territory. CHCA currently manage close to 400 social and affordable homes including those in the Alice Springs Town Camps.

As they embark on this leadership change, the incoming Chief Executive Officer will continue to build on the solid foundations, effectiveness and reputation of CHCA, whilst driving the strategic growth of the organisation and applying sound business principles.

Reporting to the Board, you will work collaboratively ensuring effective strategic planning, sound governance, service and stakeholder relationship delivery and financial management. In addition, you will be an excellent communicator and provide leadership to your team in best practice operational management.

The successful candidate will be a passionate, natural leader with extensive experience working at Executive or Senior Management level within the Community Housing sector. You will have knowledge and appreciation of the regulatory environment for housing management, including the National Regulatory System for Community Housing and the Residential Tenancy Act.

In addition, you will have a natural ability to form, grow and maintain strong stakeholder relationships across all levels and hold a tertiary qualification in a relevant field, such as housing, community services or development, business management or construction.

You will embrace the unique experience of working and living in Alice Springs, Central Australia and welcome the challenges and rewards with an open mind of working within the Aboriginal cross cultural space.

This role will attract a competitive package including salary sacrifice with various packaging options and the additional benefits associated with working for a Not-for-Profit organisation within the Northern Territory.

You must meet the above criteria and have Australian Citizenship or Permanent Residency Status to be considered for this position, only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.
