

Project Operations Manager

As specialist recruiters to the Not for Profit sector Community Consulting Australia have a fantastic, newly created position with a client based in North Sydney.

They have recently launched their new Supported Independent Living business unit as part of a strategic growth strategy creating the Project Operations Manager position.

The successful candidate will be instrumental for the implementation and delivery of this exciting new model and will be responsible for establishing and leading the new team. Their current business model and services are designed to support each resident in the way they want to achieve their goals and enhance and facilitate their independence in a supported environment within the community.

You will have a proven, commercial approach to operational management and experience in providing quality support for people living with a disability in a residential environment. Candidates with an NDIS, Mental Health, Criminal Justice or Supported Independent Living background operating at this level will be held in very high regard.

In addition, you will have a tertiary qualification in Business Management or a related field along with highly developed problem solving, influencing and communication skills, and a proven capacity to maintain a high degree of discretion and exercise sound judgement when dealing with staff, clients, families/carers and sensitive and confidential matters.

In return you will be part of an organisation who provide their staff with a competitive salary and benefits package, along with professional development opportunities and in-house training as they support your new career and welcome you into the team.

To be considered for this exciting opportunity you must meet the above criteria, pass the relevant clearances associated to the role and have Australian Citizenship or Permanent Residency Status.
